Orchard Street promotes Harry Buxton to Associate

Orchard Street Investment Management ('Orchard Street'), the specialist commercial property investment manager, announces the promotion of Harry Buxton to Associate.

Harry joined Orchard Street in 2017 as acquisitions manager, following a successful seven-year track record at Jones Lang LaSalle, where he began his career and qualified as a Chartered Surveyor. Harry has been part of an acquisitions team that has transacted over £850m across the UK in the last 5 years. With a focus on deal origination and underwriting of UK commercial property across multiple sectors, Harry has extensive experience in the acquisition of investment properties on behalf of Orchard Street's clients.

With significant capital to deploy across all sectors of the UK market for both core and value-add capital, Orchard Street expects 2022 to be an active year for investment across its client mandates.

Philip Gadsden, Managing Partner at Orchard Street, commented: "Since joining Orchard Street, Harry has made a significant impact in buying some first-rate properties, while helping to evolve our acquisition strategy to align with our responsible investment principles. His strategic thinking has also proved invaluable against the backdrop of the global pandemic. I am delighted to announce his promotion to Associate which reflects the role Harry plays in supporting Orchard Street's growth ambitions and our desire to continue delivering consistent outperformance for our clients."
