Singapore, 14 January 2026 – GLP Pte Ltd (“GLP” and with its subsidiaries the “Group”) today announced the appointment of Angela Zhao as CEO of GLP China. The appointment forms part of GLP’s long-term succession planning and reflects its strategy to further strengthen integration and synergies across its new-economy platforms in China.

Angela is a founding member and seasoned GLP executive. Since joining in 2003, she has served in key leadership positions, earning a reputation for operational excellence and data-driven strategies. Between 2018 and 2025, Angela held the position of Co-President, China Logistics and Industrial Real Estate, where she led the strategy, investment and operations of an approximately 50 million square metres portfolio spanning across 70 cities and municipalities, while incubating new growth engines such as intelligent industrial parks.

“Angela has been part of GLP from the very beginning and has played an instrumental role in shaping the growth and evolution of our China business,” said Ming Mei, CEO of GLP. “She combines deep operating experience with a strong sense of ownership and care for the business. I have full confidence in her ability to lead our China platform with rigor, ambition and the entrepreneurial spirit that defines GLP.”

“I am honored and excited to take on this next chapter after more than 20 years of growing with GLP,” said Angela Zhao, CEO of GLP China. “Over the years, we have built something truly special – a highly integrated and differentiated new-economy platform, driven by exceptional people, strong execution and a deep understanding of our customers. I look forward to continuing to work closely with our teams to capture new opportunities and deliver sustainable, performance-led growth.”

Angela will report directly to Ming Mei, who continues in his role as Global CEO, and is supported by a seasoned China management team, ensuring continuity and driving future success.

Teresa Zhuge, immediate past Executive Vice Chairwoman of GLP China, continues as a member of GLP’s Global Executive Committee and GLP China Board of Directors. In her newly expanded global role, she will assume broader firm-wide management, strategy and decision-making responsibilities at the GLP Group level.

“I am excited to step into this broader global role and look forward to contributing in an expanded capacity, supporting the continued success of both our China and global platforms,” said Teresa Zhuge, Global Executive Committee Member of GLP.

GLP China is a leading new-economy infrastructure investment manager with integrated capabilities in asset development and operations. Building on its long heritage in logistics, the platform has expanded into highly synergistic sectors, including hyperscale digital infrastructure supported by its new energy platform, creating a scaled and integrated ecosystem to serve China’s evolving economy.

About Angela Zhao

Angela Zhao is Chief Executive Officer of GLP China. She leads the Group’s Greater China business across logistics, digital infrastructure and new energy, and fund management.

Angela has over two decades of strategy, investment and operations experience in real estate and infrastructure. A founding member of the China platform, Angela has been instrumental in shaping the company’s growth for over 20 years and building up a brand synonymous with the gold standard for warehousing solutions and supply chain competitiveness.

In 2011, Angela spearheaded GLP’s entry into the business park sector, introducing intelligent industrial parks to capitalize on emerging demand from R&D and high-tech companies. This generated a new engine of growth and deepened GLP’s leadership in new economy sectors. In her various leadership capacities, Angela champions the use of smart technologies and data analytics to drive performance driven growth and business transformation.

Prior to joining GLP in 2003, Angela developed her career at Ascendas Group where she was responsible for business development in China.

Angela holds an MBA from the MIT Sloan School of Management/Fudan University and received her Bachelor’s degree in Engineering from Shanghai University.
